Požega

Opština Požega u zapadnoj Srbiji ima 42 naselja i 55 katastarskih opština. Nalazi se u prostranoj i osunčanoj kotlini u kojoj se granaju donji tokovi Skrapeža, Moravice i Đetinje od kojih nastaje Zapadna Morava. Simbol grada predstavlja kružni trg koji je nastao 1832. godine po naredbi kneza Miloša Obrenovića, na mestu ukrštanja glavnih ulica. Trg slobode je renoviran 2012. godine kada je dobio priznanje za najuspešnije arhitektonsko delo. Selo nadomak Požege, Gornja Dobrinja, od skoro je vlasnik renoviranog spomenik renoviranog kompleksa sagrađenog u čast knezu Milošu Obrenoviću koji potiče iz ovog kraja.

The municipality of Požega in western Serbia has 42 settlements and 55 cadastral communities. It is located in western Serbia, in a vast and sunny valley where lower flows of the Skrapež, Moravica, and Đetinja rivers branch out to form the Western Morava. Recognizable symbol of Požega is circular square built on intersection of the main streets in 1832, by the order of Duke Prince Miloš Obrenović. The Freedom Square was renovated in 2012, when awarded recognition as the most successful architectural work of that year. In Gornja Dobrinja, village near Požega, recently was renovated memorial complex built in honor of Prince Miloš Obrenović, who was born in this region.
